Purpose: The Department of Classical and Modern Languages and Literatures at MSU offers a German language program in Bavaria, Germany. Students will have the unique opportunity to work toward fluency in German while gaining experience in an international setting as well as being exposed to the culture of German-speaking nations.

Prerequisite: *Students who wish to participate in this Study Abroad program must have successfully completed at least college-level German 1113 and German 1123 or the equivalent.

Program: This program is situated in two southern German locations: the historic city of Augsburg and the quaint alpine Bavarian village of Garmisch-Partenkirchen. The program is specifically designed for non-native German speakers. Students will be immersed in the German language as well as in the culture of German-speaking nations in a classroom setting. Class lessons are immediately followed by excursions that both reinforce and broaden what was learned in class. Students will also have the invaluable experience of interacting with native German-speakers and the rich Bavarian culture during their stay.
