Purpose: The Department of Classical & Modern Languages and Literatures at MSU will offer a French language program in Québec City. Students will have the unique opportunity to work toward fluency in French while gaining experience in an international setting as well as being exposed to Francophone culture.

Prerequisite: *Students who wish to participate in this Study Abroad program must have successfully completed at least college-level French I or the equivalent.

Program: This program, centered within the historic walls of the old city of Québec in French Canada, is specifically designed for non-native French speakers. Students will be immersed in the French language as well as Francophone culture in a classroom setting. Class lessons are immediately followed by excursions that both reinforce and broaden what was learned in class. Students will also have the invaluable experience of interacting with native French-speakers and the rich québécois culture during their stay.
